

FTI Consulting To Host Business Update Presentations

August 14, 2003

Annapolis, MD - August 14, 2003

FTI Consulting, Inc. (NYSE: FCN), the premier national provider of turnaround, bankruptcy and litigation-related consulting services, announced that Jack Dunn, chairman and chief executive officer, Stewart J. Kahn, president and chief operating officer, and Theodore I. Pincus, executive vice president and chief financial officer, will host a business update that will highlight several of the company's different practice areas. Presentations are scheduled to begin at 12:45 p.m. EST Tuesday, August 26, 2003, and will run until approximately 3:00 p.m. EST. A 30-minute question-and-answer session will follow immediately. The audio and video can be accessed through the FTI Consulting website at <http://www.fticonsulting.com>.

The practice areas that will be featured are: Forensic Accounting and Expert Testimony, Sarbanes-Oxley Investigations, Valuation Services, Economic Consulting, Restructuring and Business Regeneration, and Electronic Evidence Services.

For further information, please contact Lisa Fortuna at lfortuna@webershandwick.com.

About FTI Consulting FTI Consulting is a multi-disciplined consulting firm with leading practices in the areas of turnaround, bankruptcy and litigation-related consulting services. Modern corporations, as well as those who advise and invest in them, face growing challenges on every front. From a proliferation of "bet-the-company" litigation to increasingly complicated relationships with lenders and investors in an ever-changing global economy, U.S. companies are turning more and more to outside experts and consultants to meet these complex issues. FTI is dedicated to helping corporations, their advisors, lawyers, lenders and investors meet these challenges by providing a broad array of the highest quality professional practices from a single source.